

KEVIN MALONE, D.O.
10 Research Place
Suite 203
N.Chelmsford, MA 01863
(978)275-9650

Medical Practice

Merrimack Valley Orthopaedic Associates, LLC
North Chelmsford, MA, September 2003 to present

Fallon Clinic – Division of Orthopaedic Reconstructive Surgery
Worcester, MA, August 2002 to September 2003

Practice Scope – General Orthopedic Surgery/Sports Medicine/Joint Reconstruction

Hospital Affiliations – Lowell General Hospital, Lowell, MA
• Chief, Department of Orthopaedic Surgery, 2016-2018

Clinical and Oral Examiner for American Osteopathic Board of Orthopedic Surgery

Graduate
Medical Education

Orthopedic Surgery Residency, 1998-2002
Michigan State University/POH Medical Center
Pontiac, MI

Elective Rotations

Trauma – University Medical Center, Las Vegas, NV 7/1/01 – 9/30/01

Pediatrics – Children’s Hospital of Michigan, Detroit Medical Ctr,
Detroit, MI 1/1/01 – 3/30/01

Joint Reconstruction and Sports Medicine – New England Baptist
Hospital, Boston, MA 10/1/00 – 11/30/00

Hand – University of Michigan St. Joseph’s Hospital, Ypsilanti, MI
August 2000

Foot and Ankle – William Beaumont Hospital, Royal, Oak, MI
March 2000

Traditional Rotating Internship, 1997-1998
Michigan State University/POH Medical Center
Pontiac, MI

Education

D.O. University of New England College of Osteopathic Medicine, 1997
Biddeford, ME

B.S. University of Rhode Island, 1992
Kingston, RI

Honors Medical School
Psi Sigma Alpha (Osteopathic Scholastic Honor Society)
Undergraduate
Outstanding College Students of America

Licensure Fully licensed, State of Mass

Certifications Board Certified – AOBOS – 10/16/07
National Board of Osteopathic Medical Examinations (Parts I, II and III)

Presentations Malone K. Synthes Orthopaedic Bioskill Workshop. External fixation and Intramedullary nailing of lower extremity injuries. Lowell General Hospital, Lowell, MA, 10/2004.
Malone K. Avascular Necrosis of the Femoral Head. Grand Rounds Worcester Medical Center, Dept of Orthopaedic Surgery, Worcester, MA, 11/2002.
Malone K. Open tibial fractures: Treatment with primary closure and Ilizarov external fixation. MSUCOM Statewide Campus System Orthopaedic Resident Research Day, East Lansing, MI, 6/2002.
Malone K, Letonoff E. Orthopedic pelvic injuries, Trauma Conference, University Medical Center, Las Vegas, NV, 8/2001.

Papers Malone K, Schwartzman R, Schwartzman V. Open tibial fractures: Treatment with primary closure and Ilizarov external fixation, June 2002.
Malone K. Total knee arthroplasty: To perform a lateral release or not! January 2002.
Malone K. Syndesmotic injuries of the ankle: Review of the literature. June 2001.

Organizations: American Osteopathic Academy of Orthopedics
American Osteopathic Association

Teaching Experience Orthopedic Resident – Responsible for clinical education of residents, interns and Medical students, 1998 – present.
UNECOM Teaching Assistant – Osteopathic Practices and Principles, 1994-95
UNECOM Anatomy Tutor – Review Course for EMTs, 1994
Student Teacher – Adapted Aquatics and Rehabilitation, 1988

Extra-Curricular Activities Student Government Association – Class Representative, 1994-96
Class Noteservice Organization – Treasurer, 1994-97
Sports Medicine Club – Vice President, 1994-95
Student Osteopathic Surgical Association – Founding Member, 1993-95
Intramural Sports, 1993-96

Volunteer Activities Anatomy Tutor/Moderator – Regional Student Athletic Trainer Conference, 1995
Orientation Leader for Incoming Class, 1994
Walk-In Clinic/Emergency Room, S. County Hospital, Wakefield, RI, 1991-92
Physical Therapy Assistant, S. County Orthopedics, Wakefield, RI, 1989
Physical Therapy Aid, S. Kingstown Dept of Special Education, Kingstown, RI, 1988

References Furnished upon request